Leila:

I am glad I was able to speak with you this morning about the invitation (previously sent to the Secretary's office and copied below) from the Trustees of the National Gallery of Art to Secretary Zinke to attend a program and dinner at the Gallery on the evening of September 20. We do understand following our conversation that it is very unlikely that the Secretary, who has to be in Missouri on the September 20, will be able to accept this invitation for that evening. We will certainly look for another opportunity to have him, our Chairman, Bob Dudley, and members of the BP Group Board get together with the Secretary. Please let us know should the Secretary's plans change.

Thank you very much for all of your assistance and very best regards,

David
